History. There is a history of association or exploitation of scientific inventions by individuals claiming that newly discovered science could help people to heal: In the 19th century, electricity and magnetism were in the "borderlands" of science and electrical quackery was rife. These concepts continue to inspire writers in the New Age movement.

3. High Yield Notes: Less known are the Goljan High Yield Pathology Notes. The format that is available on the internet is not ideal, but I do think that these notes can be very useful. The document is a very rapid review of the pathology associations that are most common and most important to Steps 1 and 2.
