Liberalism is a highly contested term that consists of many competing theories of the way society should be. Associate Professor Greg Melleuish shed light on this topic at the Liberty and Society Conference on 12 September 2009. Melleuish began by outlining the basics of liberalism in relation to its core principles of individualism and liberty.

The Tragedy of Great Power Politics is a book by the American scholar John Mearsheimer on the subject of international relations theory published by W.W. Norton & Company in 2001. Mearsheimer explains and argues for his theory of "offensive realism" by stating its key assumptions, evolution from early realist theory, and its predictive capability.
