The Traitors' Wife (2011) About book: I think what I liked most about this book was the unexpected romance embedded in the historical fiction. From A strong woman circumscribed by artificial restrictions imposed on her by her time, her place, and her social standing is a recurrent theme in historical fiction. Higginbotham artfully reworks this theme, fictionalizing the story of Eleanor le Despenser, niece of Edward II and wife of Hugh le Despenser the Younger.
