It is not seen, that the plough is in the hands of James, only because it is not in those of John. It is not seen, that if James farms instead of digging, John will be reduced to the necessity of digging instead of farming. That, consequently, what was considered an increase of loan, is nothing but a displacement of loan.

Changing the Seen and Shaping the Unseen things that are." God has chosen things that are not to bring to naught things that are! He is simply talking about things not revealed to the physical senses. Hebrews 11:1 tells us: Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Faith is the substance, the raw material.
